

Fraoch Lodge

Your hosts at Fraoch Lodge are Andy & Rebecca. The house is of a traditional Edwardian design, made of granite. Artifacts from their travels through Asia & Africa adorn the walls as do mountain pictures. Comfortable accommodation is provided in 1 group room of 4 beds and 4 twin rooms – group room only available in the summer. (Twin rooms only for the rest of the year.) Each bedroom has its own hand basin and there is a 1:4 toilet & shower ratio.

Catering is available at Fraoch Lodge with meal times to suit your group. We cater for all kinds of groups & can tailor our menu to your requirements including for those who may have special dietary needs.

Will Hide's article in "The Guardian" 7.5.05.....

"we spent the first night enjoying Rebecca's cooking, which would have passed muster in any hotel. Home-made fishcakes, curries, white chocolate & pecan brownies, and raspberry & basil ice cream make up just a small part of her repertoire..."

The Lodge also provides a fully equipped drying room, daily mountain forecasts and Andrew, a mountaineering instructor, is always on hand to provide information on conditions & local route advice should it be needed. He is also very knowledgeable about the high mountain flora & fauna.
